I am an Olympic slalom canoeist from the London 2012 games, currently serving as a coach and manager at the Carabinieri Sports Center, knowledgeable about the operational dynamics and opportunities of Military Sports Groups. As a coach's representative on the National Council of the Italian National Olympic Committee, I understand the administrative and managerial aspects of Italian sports.

From 2016 I organized and improved the slalom sector of the Italian Canoe Federation, enhancing technical and scientific standards and international sports results.

Since 2021, I have been an advisor for the International Canoe Federation (ICF), familiar with its administrative and operational mechanisms.

I have managed sports associations since 2000, providing organizational consultancy. I possess excellent communication, organizational, and teaching skills.
