3) Live streaming and social media

All matches will be live streamed at <https://www.canoeicf.com>

Once the competition starts, on the homepage of the ICF website you will see the 2018 ICF Canoe Polo World Championships page.

Below the header there will be four videos, one showing each pitch. You can watch all four videos at once, pause some videos, or click on one video to watch just that video.

To the right of the videos will be the match list of all matches already started, with links to each specific match. Click on a group heading, then the specific match to watch it. The match you wish to watch will play, and the other three videos will pause.

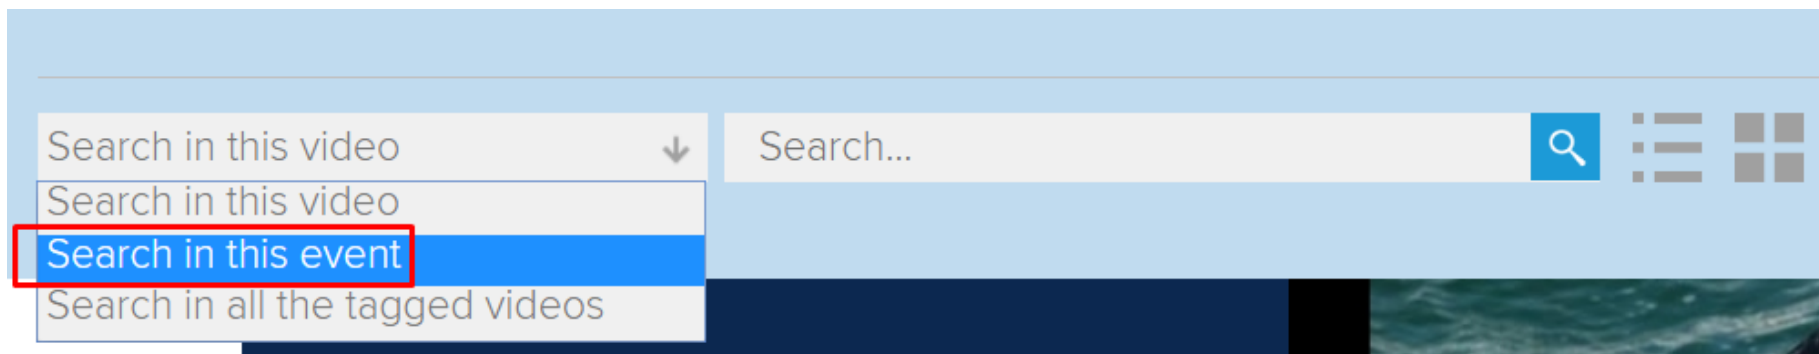

The Facebook/Twitter links below the match title will allow you to place a link directly to the match onto your Facebook/Twitter page. This can be used by NFs, teams or individuals. The orange link icon will copy the link to the match to your clipboard, so you can paste it anywhere required e.g. an email.

To see past matches, click on the appropriate session link below the video to see the match list (each video will be kept to a maximum four hours long to ensure the links work correctly).
