1. Corona and marathon

This is the first newsletter in 2020, but you can understand that in this uncertain time, it is difficult to make a definite newsletter, what we decide now, may be changed tomorrow.

Much like you, all of us are closely monitoring the impact of the coronavirus (Covid-19) as the situation involves around the globe, and our hearts go out to all those directly involved. More or less most races are cancelled this year and we are concerned that it will be even be difficult to have competitions from September, but if the borders are going open with no restrictions, it will be possible. We will keep you informed and we would appreciate it if you will contact us if there any marathon races which are not listed in the calendar below that are open for paddlers abroad.

3. Who are complaining there's never anything interesting to do (beside if canoeing possible)?

1) Quiz marathon

Test your marathon knowledge with this quiz. You can't win any prize, no medal, only everlasting fame. We will put the results in the newsletter which published after July 1. <https://www.canoeicf.com/disciplines/canoe-marathon>

2) The International Canoe Federation is hoping to encourage professional and recreational paddlers all over the world to participate in our virtual competition and take on a five kilometres paddle challenge to not only stay active, but to raise money for the incredibly important work of Doctors Without Borders/Médecins Sans Frontières \(MSF\).

For more information see <https://www.canoeicf.com/5kPaddleChallenge>

3) For canoe kids there is a special page on the ICF website <https://www.canoeicf.com/canoe-kids>

 Short distance races half of the points normal distance

Where points in the series are equal, the paddler who has won the larger number of races will be the winner. In case that still being a tie, the most second places will be considered, and so on to third and fourth positions, until the position is determined. In the event that all places are equal, the winner will be determined by position of the most recent races completed, i.e. last event has highest priority.
