ICF President Mr. Jose Perurena
ICF Secretary General Mr. Simon Toulson

Moscow, 06/07/2020

Dear Mr. Perurena, Dear Mr. Toulson,

The Russian Canoe Federation kindly asks you to include the private non-government competitions "The Cup of Ageev brothers and the Olympic Champions Yury Postrigay and Alexander Dyachenko" in the ICF calendar.

The organizers of this Cup are Alexander Ageev and Andrey Ageev – Russian kayak masters, and current athletes Yuri Postrigai and Alexander Dyachenko – 2012 Olympic Champions.

Competitions are commercial and held in August annually.

The Cup hosts two unique and non-standard distances with a prize fund: the 100m SUPERSPRINT in singles (2 persons on the start line – knockout system) and the 650m SUPERFORCE in singles (4 persons on the start line – knockout system).

Age categories for the 100m SUPERSPRINT: Juniors U-18; Seniors 19+; Masters under 55 and Masters 55+.

Age categories for the 650m SUPERFORCE: Seniors 19+.

There is a prize pool for all age categories.

The organizers invite athletes from all over the world to participate in the 100m SUPERSPRINT and the 650m SUPERFORCE in accordance with the age categories.

The organizers have prepared individual medals and cups, as well as interesting gifts for the winners of the competitions in each age category.

The foreign athletes can also participate in the 200m mixed event and in the 200m SUP race.

“The Cup of the Ageev brothers and the Olympic Champions Yuri Postrigay and Alexander Dyachenko” is a completely new format of competitions that unite athletes of different ages all over the World.

Ageev brothers Cup was first held in Volzhsky (Volgograd region) in August 2001. The 20th anniversary Cup will be held in 2020.

Since 2017 the Cup is held in August annually in Moscow on the Krylatskoe Venue at a substantially new level of the international holiday of canoeing festival with the support of the Russian Canoe Federation.
