

10.– 12. 6. 2022 | Prague, Czech Republic

Information Bulletin

Dear Sports Friends,

Czech Canoe Union is pleased to invite you to take part at the 2022 ICF Canoe Slalom World Cup in Prague - Troja, Czech Republic.

We are extremely excited to host another event even in this difficult period. Having proven high level experience from organizing of the top world competitions accompanied with a very high degree of media exposure, Czech Canoe Union is ready to prepare and conduct 2022 ICF Canoe Slalom World Cup.

In past years we have delivered many successful international events – just mention 2013 ICF Canoe Slalom World Championships which was a great contribution to the 100th anniversary of Czech Canoe Union, 2018 and 2020 ECA Canoe Slalom European Championships and 2019 ICF Canoe Slalom World Cup Final and 2019 ICF Extreme Canoe Slalom World Championships.

Czech canoeing is ready to welcome all national teams for the training and the competition and we hope that this event held on artificial slalom course in Prague - Troja will be a good start of the Olympic season. We are looking forward seeing you in Prague.

Here we are presenting a summary of the most important information. More information regarding this event can be found:

General Information about Czech Republic and Prague

Prague - Troja, Czech Republic

Prague is the capital of the Czech Republic. It has an area of 496 km² and is home to 1,200,000 people. The year 870, when Prague castle was established, is regarded as the beginning of the city's existence. However, people inhabited the area in the early Stone Age. In 1918, at the end of World War I, Prague was declared the capital of a new country – the Czechoslovak Republic. In 1993 it became the capital of an independent Czech Republic. Prague is situated in the heart of Europe – approximately 600km from the Baltic, 700km from the North Sea and 700km from the Adriatic. Prague is not a huge distance from other central European cities. Vienna is 300 km away, Bratislava 320 km, Berlin 350 km, Budapest 550 km, Warsaw 630 km and Copenhagen 750 km.

The River Vltava flows through Prague for 31 km, and at its widest measures 330 m. The Vltava has created some interesting places in Prague – islands and meanders, providing many idyllic scenes.

Prague, the nation's capital, is the centre of political, economic and sport activity in the Czech Republic. Prague magical history, beautiful architecture, and culture attract millions of visitors to the city each year. The concert halls, theatres, clubs and restaurants will provide the participants of the 2013 World Championships with a lifelong memory.
