1. INTRODUCTION

In this publication you will see a change in the title of the competition which has boldly added an “Open ICF Ranking Competition” into the customary championships.

Both events have equal importance due to the fact that ACC has designated the 2023 Asian Canoe Slalom Junior & U23 Championships as a validation event for participation in the 2023 ICF Canoe Slalom World Championships in Lee Valley later this year (refer to Chapter 13,13.2.4 Canoe Slalom Competition Rules 2023).

The addition of an Open ICF Ranking Competition was consequently decided upon based on the new entry rule to the World Cup series (refer to Chapter 15, 15.3.2) which is taking effect from 1 January 2023, and supported by the ICF and the host country to offer the chance for athletes who wish to earn a ranking to join the World Cups. All athletes are welcome to the race to earn points.

Contents in the Bulletin no. 2 feature on events and entry rules of the ranking race and other information missing from Bulletin no.1. Therefore, both publications should be used together as the main source of references for thorough comprehension.

There are 4 attachments at the end of the bulletin. Please study these carefully and submit the form(s) before or on due date should you require the services offered.
