Foundation of a brand

- I started my own brand of crochet accessories. In the beginning, I was supported mainly by my friends, but over time the brand has reached other people and I am now getting big orders
- Thanks to this, I learned to meet deadlines and organize my time better, as well as to take care of all the formalities that I have to comply with as a brand owner

present

PR of the Czech Canoe Team

- I started to write articles about WWC and to take care of the social networks of the Czech canoe team (wwc only)
- I also started writing articles for my club in Brno and started helping with kids and organization

Volunteering

- In 2021, my friend Adam Satke and I also started our volunteer work. At least once a year we try to visit children with cancer in the Brno hospital. We tell them about paddling and try to bring them at least for a moment to other thoughts
