Words of welcome – Mayor of Nova Gorica

Ladies and Gentlemen, Dear Guests,

I would like to extend a warm welcome to Nova Gorica to all the competitors, team members, guests and visitors of the 2025 ICF Junior and U23 Wildwater Canoeing World Championships, an important international event, which we are very glad and honoured to be hosting. It is not the first time we have such an event here, as the organisers, namely the Canoe Federation of Slovenia and the Soške Elektrarne Kayak Club, have a wide experience with international competitions. Over the past decade the Solkan Kayak Centre hosted the Junior World Championships in 2006 and the European Junior and U23 Championships in 2008, 2012, 2016 and 2021, but also the Wildwater Canoeing World Championships in 2013. I do believe that the upcoming championships will once again be organised with utmost professionalism.

I would like to invite you to join also the GO!2025 events. As you might have heard, Nova Gorica and Gorizia will be the European capital of Culture in the upcoming year. So use the opportunity to check the intense and inspiring program and visit the many cultural and other events, the historical sites and treasures of nature in our region. I am also sure you will enjoy the richness and variety of our delicious local cuisine and the pleasant Mediterranean climate. I am looking forward to greeting you in the Goriška Region and the Soča Valley with our hospitality at its best and our traditional cross-border cooperation.

Samo Turel

A big and important sporting event is ahead of us and it is an honour to welcome all the competitors and other participants of the 2025 ICF Junior and U23 Wildwater Canoeing World Championships – Solkan/Nova Gorica 2025.

We have taken over the organisation of this big event in belief that the youth is the most important part of the sport's development. They are equally important for the sport as the sport is important for their development. This has been and will be our organisational guideline of the competitions in Solkan. Kayak centre Solkan on the Soča River is one of the most recognised wildwater centres, primarily intended for the development of young competitors.

Competitions are of course part of the sport and a necessity, but we believe that the 2025 ICF Junior and U23 Wildwater Canoeing European Championships – Solkan 2025 will be more than just another competition for the young athletes. We will strive to achieve they will remember this championships mostly for good company, nice moments and of course beautiful places. Championships Venue

The Kayak Centre Solkan previously hosted the ICF Wildwater Canoeing World Championships in 2013, as well as the ECA Junior and U23 Canoe Slalom/Wildwater European Championships in 2008, 2012, and 2016. We can confidently say that all these events were a great success. However, organizing the championships presents an additional challenge for our organizing committee and many others involved in bringing this sporting event to life. Once again, we are preparing to host two professional and exciting championships, complemented by an engaging additional program in a relaxing setting and pleasant natural surroundings. For the upcoming event, the organizer is placing special emphasis on integrating the program with GO!2025 – European Capital of Culture, as well as the ICF development program. The novelty and innovation of this event will be that, for the first time, two championships (kayaking and rafting) will be held together.

As this is one of the most important competitions under the auspices of the International Canoe Federation, we expect the participation of the best young wildwater competitors from around the world.

The local canoeing club built a new kayak center in 2005 with the help of the city and the government. A modern sports center has been developed on the site of a former sawmill and paper mill, with additional support from European funds.

The kayak center features a partially artificial channel within the natural riverbed, which is suitable for training at different water levels. The 300-meter-long track and the modern facility adjacent to it allow for the organization of any competition or training session, catering to both beginners and top-level paddlers.

The course on the Soča River is made of stone and spans 450 meters in length, with a 2.7-meter drop. The water flow is controlled by hydropower plants with ample water coverage. The power plant is located 750 meters upstream. The course has arranged water access, trails for paddlers, and stands for spectators.

In just a few years since its establishment, the kayak center has become well-known for hosting popular and engaging events both during the day and in the evening, when floodlights illuminate the course, making the venue even more attractive to the audience.

Nova Gorica & Solkan

Goriška is a region divided between Slovenia and Italy. It stretches from the sea to the high peaks of the Alps. Its proximity to the Adriatic Sea and the Alpine peaks gives it a mild climate throughout the year, making it one of the most pleasant places to live.

Slovenian Goriška is a region with 119,000 inhabitants, located in the westernmost part of Slovenia. After the Second World War, Nova Gorica (with 36,000 residents) became an important center for universities, science, culture, commerce, and sports. Nova Gorica, also known as the "City of Roses," boasts a variety of hotels of all categories, as well as small guesthouses and apartments, which are renowned for their excellent cuisine and superb wine.

The main artery of Goriška is the Soča River, which originates in the heart of the Julian Alps. Over its almost 138 km length to the sea, the Soča River is a paradise for paddlers and other water sports enthusiasts.

Solkan is a place known for its carpentry and canoeing. Kayakers became active here, especially before and shortly after the Second World War, when they formally organized themselves into a club that still exists today. Canoe racing feels at home here. Names such as Prijon, Bone, Špacal, Jug, Pellegrini, Poberaj, Abramič, Štrukelj, and others have carried the good name of Solkan kayakers around the world, earning many world champion titles and other successes. Through their knowledge and enthusiasm, they have played a key role in developing the canoeing sport as we know it today.

NOVA GORICA-GORIZIA

NOVA GORICA-GORIZIA – European Capital of Culture 2025

On one side is Nova Gorica, built from scratch after World War II, once the dividing border between Italy and Slovenia was drawn. On the other is Gorizia, a cultural, administrative, and economic centre with an ancient history. GO! Borderless has a mission: to give voice to the combined heritage of a modernist city and a thousand-year-old city. To transcend their boundaries on a journey of reconciliation.

The first step was to develop an innovative cross-border strategy, a strong sense of cohesion, and a joint communication effort. Between two countries, two cities, and many people. GO! 2025 overcomes the physical and cultural barriers between our societies to prove that cross-border governance has a positive impact on the growth of European suburbs, which are essential pieces of the EU mosaic.

The result is the cultural and artistic programme of GO! 2025, whose unique projects go beyond borders and transcend the ordinary.

Nova Gorica and Gorizia share the same commitment: being the European Capital of Borderless Culture.
