02 - WELCOME

Dear athletes,

It's a great pleasure that the city of Foix will welcome you to the 2025 ICF Junior & U23 Canoe Slalom World Championships from July 8 to 13, 2025. This international event is part of the rich sporting history of our town, and Foix has the honour of hosting this prestigious competition for the second time, after the 2010 edition.

Our natural Rebech White Water stadium, where many talented canoeists have been born, will be the stage for your sporting exploits. You are its successors, and we look forward to following your performances. We wish you a competition synonymous with success and medals for each and every one of you!

These World Championships will be much more than a sporting event, it will be a true meeting of passion, determination and sharing. Foix is set to be the venue of intensity and conviviality, where team spirit will create an unforgettable experience. Whether on the water or at the various entertainments that will mark the week, we hope that you'll leave with many precious memories.

See you soon in Foix!

Marine Bordes

Mayor of Foix and President of the Organising Committee
