INVITATION

This year's ICF Canoe Slalom World Cup is yet another event in a strong tradition of great international competitions held at the Kraków-Kolna Canoe Slalom Course.

Since its opening, the modern artificial whitewater course has held some of the most important international competitions. Before the 2013 European Championships the course had been thoroughly modernised to meet the requirements of the European Canoe Association and International Canoe Federation and is now ready to host world's best slalom athletes.

The Kraków-Kolna Canoe Slalom Course not only provides an excellent training base for Poland's representatives but it is also the site of important sporting events. Thanks to its many amenities and a convenient location it is very popular with Kraków citizens for outdoor recreation.

I am also convinced that our centre will be a successful host of the World Cup and win the hearts of its distinguished participants.

You are cordially invited to the Kolna Canoe Slalom Course and to the beautiful, historic and lively city of Kraków.

*Jacek Majchrowski
Mayor of Kraków*

Ladies and gentlemen, dear friends!

On behalf of Polish Canoe Federation I cordially welcome to Krakow all participants of the ICF 2018 Canoe Slalom World Cup.

Since 2002 the City of Krakow and Kolna Regatta Course have been the heart of Polish and European Canoe Slalom. It is here where many generations of talented athletes, Olympic and international medallists have been developing their sports skills. I believe that taking part in this World Cup will be an important stage in sports career of all competitors.

I wish you an enjoyable stay in Krakow and true satisfaction from participation in this World Cup.

*Tadeusz Wróblewski
President of Polish Canoe Federation*

Kraków has about 755,000 permanent residents and the city conurbation totals some 1,5 million people. Is a metropolis with the cosmopolitan atmosphere. According to statistics in 2012 Kraków was visited by 7 million tourists. The main reason for visiting are: its historical monuments, recreation, religion and business; outside the city are: the Wieliczka salt mine, the Tatra Mountains, Częstochowa - the historic city, Auschwitz - Nazi concentration camp and Ojcowski National Park.

Krakowians can be counted on - they are well-educated, competent and welcoming. Today Kraków is the preferred residence of eminent artist and cultural figures. This royal city is unofficial cultural capital of Poland. Furthermore is the most recognized Polish location referred as „the Athens of the North” or „the Slavic Rome”.

HOW TO ACCESS KRAKOW?

Kraków is easy to reach by various means of transport. It is a railway hub where numerous regional, national and international lines converge. It offers coach services to Europe's and Poland's main cities and has its own international airport: John Paul II International Airport Kraków-Balice.

This makes travel from the west fairly easy. Driving from Warsaw (300 km) is more difficult as the A1 has not yet been completed. The easiest rout is the S7 express road. The Kraków city centre is covered by the Parki Zone. Drivers pay the parking fee in parking meters located along streets in the city center.

BY BUS

PKS Station (Bus Transport Company) is centrally located right behind Kraków’s main train station. It provides both domestic and international services. Apart from ticket offices, kiosks, bar and PKS information point also travel agencies selling tickets for international routes are located in the bus station hall.
