

ICF Waiver

For participation at ICF events

I hereby declare that:

I have full knowledge of the ICF statutes and competition rules and that all athletes, officials and other accredited personnel are aware and will abide by the aforementioned rules.

All entered personnel agree and confirm their understanding of the rules for the Championships and the following aspects related to the event.

All personnel agree to be filmed, televised, interviewed, photographed, identified and/or otherwise recorded during the Championships under the conditions and for the purposes now or hereafter in relation to the promotion of the sport of canoeing, including for use to such effect by the ICF and its stakeholders.

All personnel will comply with the provisions of the world anti-doping code in force at the time of the Championships as well as the ICF anti-doping rules applicable to the Championships. The person also agrees to comply with the ICF code of ethics.

Each person agrees to participate in the Championships at their own risk and they will take all reasonable measures to protect themselves from the risks of participation

Each person is responsible for all property brought into the venues and neither the organiser nor the ICF shall have any responsibility for any loss or damage to this property.

Each person irrevocably release the organising committee and/or the ICF (and their respective members, directors, officers, employees, volunteers, contractors or agents) from any liability (to the extent permitted by law) for any loss, injury or damage that the person may suffer in relation to their participation in the Championships.

The use of personal data being collected by the organiser and/or ICF will be stored and used solely for the purposes of, and to the extent necessary in relation to, facilitating participation, organisation and promotion of the Championships.
