ICF 2022 COVID 19 Protocol

Responsibility:

The national federations (NF) are responsible of their own risk assessment and for all costs associated with Covid-19 testing. They appoint a COVID-19 Manager in their workforce.

The NF Covid-19 Manager is responsible for ensuring that all team personnel have read the Health Check forms (appendix 2 of the 2022 COVID-19 protocol) and abided by their contents, prior to signing the COVID-19 Consent Form.

To be accredited in a competition a person is required to:

- Have had a negative Covid test within the 24 hours prior to entering the venue. It can be Rapid Self-test, Rapid PoC, PCR, NAATs tests. No evidence is needed to be accredited. Remark: During long official training or competition period (> 3 days), the ICF medical committee recommends to keep self-testing every three days
- Accept to follow the 2022 ICF COVID-19 protocol guide (symptoms tracking and participant instructions)

Acceptance of these principles are recorded by the host organizing committee which collect either a Personal Health Check Information Form (for individuals like ITOs, HOC staff) or a COVID 19 Consent Form (for whole team).

The ICF or HOC does not accept any responsibility for COVID-19 infection that occurs before, during or after the competition. The ICF and HOC appoint a COVID-19 Managers in their workforce.

Personal Equipment and safety measures:

During travel time and at the competition venue, participants must:

- Wear a mask indoors and in crowded places
- Frequently ventilate indoor spaces
- Avoid close contacts such as handshakes and hugging (e.g., award ceremony)
- Wash hands regularly and sanitise contact points

Process for a Positive Test or Suspicion

- Case report to the HOC COVID-19 and the ICF COVID managers. Assessment of needed actions with local health authorities & ICF medical committee.
- Immediate isolation and testing for the whole team and for all close contacts.
- All close contacts must be tested and if negative, athlete/staff/organizer can compete or work but will be restricted to minimal movements.
- If a further positive case occurs outside of the index case close contact in one team or group, the whole team/group may need to be isolated and quarantined until results of further rapid antigen testing are known
- All expenses for isolation or needed quarantine must be paid by the concerned entity

Carbon footprint

We are going to carry out the carbon footprint for the ICF Canoe Slalom World Cup Final La Seu 2022.

For this, we need to know the details of your trip.

A Google form is to be completed online by each team leader, on behalf of the whole team:

<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfrPFWRP0DXCSRICRuhOsLGqNcuitfvJFMscmEcE85MJW2WiA/viewform>

A verification will be carried out when the accreditations are handed over. Please fill it out in advance.
